

ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON
Office of the Archbishop

December 9, 2015

To whom it may concern:

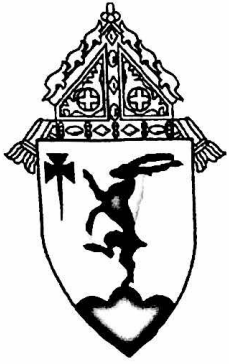

I am writing this letter of recommendation at the request of Judy McDonald, whose recent presentations in the Archdiocese of Kingston were very well received – both at our 'Shine Like the Son' youth conference and at our 'Comedy and Praise' event.

Both of Judy's presentations were excellent. She read her audience well and engaged them in her entertaining comedy, skilfully incorporating a number of important faith topics throughout the talks.

I found Judy to be very personable. She interacted cheerfully with conference participants throughout the day and evening. Her willingness to share her gifts of humour and evangelization for the Church is commendable.

Sincerely yours,

† Brendan M. O'Brien
Archbishop of Kingston

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

February 16, 2015

To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to recommend Judy McDonald as an effective speaker and one who leaves the audience with a renewed sense of what they can do to be of service to others.

Judy has been through a great deal in her life but has benefitted from those difficult circumstances, now to be able to bring to others a message of hope and an invitation to become a full disciple of Christ.

Judy has spoken at our Youth Fest gathering in the Diocese of Tucson and was extremely well received by the young people. Not only is she entertaining but she prods and encourages young people to step up and use their gifts serving others.

Judy is an individual with great personal and public faith. Her authenticity is apparent in her genuine love of Christ and His people shines through in her presentations. It is a great pleasure having her join us for Youth Fest and we hope to be able to do so again.

I am sure you would be satisfied were you to engage her for an event.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Gerald F. Kicanas, D.D.
Bishop of Tucson
